

Remembrance of brother Howie

By Shrews

Had not seen him in nearly 10 years, had just heard from him recently by phone - out of the blue. My long lost brother of the Road , Howard G. Dunbar got on that "big Hog" and rode it straight into eternity on 12/29/08. Don't know how or why he was taken so young, but thanks for the outlet to pay tribute to a brother that I hope has finally found his peace, as he struggled with demons here on earth.

For my brother this is my ode not brothers by birth but brothers of the road together we laughed but it was today I cried as today is the day
my brother Howie died
No longer will you suffer

I knew not your pain Don't know why you were taken and why we still remain

Ride on in peace , brother, with the everlasting wind in your face !

(ps - dude, you suck, you get to meet Elvis before me !!!!)
